

the art(ist)of becoming

RAINBOWS IN THE MUD

by FIND MUTYA

words & felt pen art

dedicated to my nanay/mother

for her patience, courage, sacrafices &
enduring love

matriarchs of the world

mahal kita / i love you salamat / thank you for my life

your sun over mountains & pearl of the orient

mutya

NORMA JAVIER ARAGON MACATUMPAG

august 7 1940 feb 28 2024

I miss you
of nanay

The image features the text "I miss you of nanay" in a stylized, cursive font. The word "I" is large and purple with a black outline. "miss you" is in a smaller purple font with a black outline. "of" is a black outline of a flower. "nanay" is in a purple font with a black outline. The text is arranged in two lines: "I miss you" on the top line and "of nanay" on the bottom line.

i yearn for your voice
touch
laughter
everything

i look for you in humming birds wings
&
low tides

i feel you
all
ways

you / i / us
living on through your blood

FIND MUTYA artista medicinal a.k.a. mutya macatumpag

ARTIST PERFORMER COMMUNITY BRIDGER facilitation ● music ● visual arts ● movement THROUGH EMPOWERMENT CREATIVITY & FUN

Mutya's ancestry is of Filipino, Spanish and Malayan descent made on the tagalog speaking lands and born a settler on the ancestral, stolen, unceded, and unsundered territories of the xwməθkwə́yəm (Musqueam), sk̓wx̓w̓7mesh (Squamish), Stó:lō, and Tsleil-Waututh traditional peoples.

She is a queer interdisciplinary artist and facilitator who interweaves performance and visual arts within her practice as a vocalist, creator, creative empowerment facilitator, event experience host and producer.

Mutya's creative life connects and works with nature, ancestry, death, birth, transformation, and identity, in the realms of felt pen art, wire and tissue paper structures that emit light, wearable wire designs, "Colour-In" stickers, found & donated material creations, hand cut stencils and silk screen explorations.

She is enlivened by opportunities to explore authentic exchange, leadership, social justice, community building, people empowerment through the arts and has worked with intergenerational, intercultural and youth focused organizations across BC, Canada, USA and Internationally.

IG @findmutya FB MutyaMutya
Email findmutya@gmail.com

MJM 2024